OLD BUSINESS

The Board Newsletter was again discussed and Ms. Hazlette requested articles from board members to be brought to the next board meeting or emailed to the Board Administrator.

NEW BUSINESS

The Board reviewed an email from Wayne Rice regarding grandfather clause. It was discussed that there are no grandfather provisions and that Mr. Rice would need to meet the equivalency requirements for licensure.

The Board reviewed an email from Elisa Trager regarding her employment at Seven Counties and how she could sign her case notes. The Board decided to send a letter to inform her about the laws and regulations, and that she must cease and desist until a Kentucky license has been issued and an approved supervision contract is in place. Motion was made by Ms. Medinger, seconded by Mr. Smith. Motion carried.

Mr. Grawe, discussed information about the LCSW Supervision Listing. All agreed that the list is public record and work phone numbers could be given to CSW's to secure supervision.

The board asked that Ms. Hazlette and Ms. Medinger meet with representatives from ASWB accredited master's programs at local Kentucky universities to discuss social work law and regulations as it pertains to licensing in the state.

The board discussed plans to attend a summer retreat.

TRAVEL AND PER DIEM

A motion was made by Mr. Davis to approve payment of travel and per diem expenses for eligible members at today's meeting. Seconded by Mr. Smith, motion carried.
